How does it work

Club QM's Internal Exchange Direct Exchange:

- You call us on an 800 number and tell us WHERE and WHEN you want to go and we do the rest!
- You can trade your time for up to 3 weeks, and stay in any available size unit.
- Your exchange fee is $129 for the week traded whether there is 1 person or 10 staying with you.

If where you want to go isn't in our network, we will contact Interval International and set it up for you:

Interval International with over 3200+ resort destinations

- You book your reservation at one of the QM Resorts before Interval International will complete your Interval International destination request.
- You call Interval International's 800 number or submit online on their website on WHERE and WHEN you want to go or contact us at Club QM for assistance and we do the rest!
- Interval International Exchange Fee – II establishes this fee.
- For members who upgrade their account with Interval International, hotel exchanges are now available where there are no time shares available. You can also get hotel rooms at a discounted rate when you are not using your time.
- Regardless of how we get you there, when you check out you will have NO BILL! (Note: Resort fees and taxes may apply). See Interval International for resort specific fees.
